

Animal home hosts street party in aid of homeless cats and dogs

Members of the public can meet and greet the rescue home residents at annual Open Day

London –The Mayhew Animal Home in Kensal Green is once again holding its annual Open Day in order to raise funds for the cats, dogs and rabbits at the rescue and rehoming centre.

Every summer the charity opens its doors to the public so they can see inside the rescue home and meet some of the four-legged residents. The road outside the Home will also host a traditional ‘street party’ style event, with live music, entertainment, BBQ, gift stalls and much more.

2010’s event will feature street acrobatics, performances from Britain’s Got Talent semi-finalist Jackie Prescott and her dog Tippytoes, The Mayhew’s Dog Shows and interactive tours round the Home’s veterinary clinic.

When: Sunday 18th July

Where: The Mayhew Animal Home, Trenmar Gardens, Kensal Green, London NW10 6BJ

Time: 11.30 -4.30

Mayhew Dog Shows at 1pm and 3.30pm

Performance from Jackie and Tippytoes at 2pm

Events Co-ordinator, Fran Llewelin, said: “The Mayhew Animal Home is opening its doors to our friends to come and see some of our amazing facilities and meet some of our animal residents. You will also get a behind the scenes peak at some areas which are usually out of bounds to the general public!

We have loads of fun activities going on and some fantastic areas for children including a bouncy castle, face painting, having photos taken with our littlest residents in our kitten garden and loads of other fun and games!”

Entry is £2.50 (£1.50 concessions)
